7. Confidentiality, Data Security and Privacy:

We take the protection of your privacy and personal data (hereinafter referred to as "Personal Data") very seriously and treat them strictly confidentially in accordance with the statutory data protection regulations and this data protection guideline.

We shall establish and maintain all the reasonable electronic and physical safeguards against unauthorized access, destruction, loss, accidental or unauthorized deletion, disclosure or alteration of any personal data or confidential information under applicable data privacy regulations.

While we shall maintain reasonable standards of data security and safeguards, we shall not be held liable for any data breach or leakage occurred due to the circumstances beyond our control or anything which is not intentional or negligent. We shall not be responsible for the issues on the part of the manufacturers/providers of the servers and third-parties outside our control.

8. Limitation of Liability and Warranty:

We are not responsible for the availability, quality, results of, or failure to provide any medical, legal or other assistance or service caused by conditions beyond our control. We are not liable for any malpractice performed by a local doctor, healthcare provider, or attorney arranged or provided by us as part of services under these terms and conditions. In no case, any claim or liability arising out of these assistance services provided by AMA, shall exceed the actual amount of benefit that a member shall be entitled for as provided in respective service benefit section.

AMA shall not be liable for any damage resulting from false or incomplete information given by the Member, especially the health and financial data. The Members are solely responsible for their health data's correctness and timeliness. In the event that claims, damages, losses, liabilities, judgments, costs or expenses (including reasonable attorneys' fees and costs) are made against AMA by a third party (e.g. Members, Healthcare Providers) because of the absence of correctness or timeliness of the Member's data and information, the respective Member undertake to fully indemnify AMA.

9. General Terms:

i. Force Majeure

We shall not be liable for any loss or damage caused to the Member/User as a result of delay or default or deficiency or failure in the Services as a result of any natural disasters, fire, riots, pandemics, civil disturbances, actions or decrees of governmental bodies, communication line failures (which are not caused due to the fault of AMA or the Third Party Service Providers), or any other delay or default or deficiency or failure which arises from causes beyond AMA's reasonable control. In any such event arising, we shall immediately give notice to the Member/User of the facts which constitute such event.

ii. Term and Termination

These terms and conditions are become effective from the start of your travel and the service benefits described are available to Active Member only during period of your travel valid for a period of 30 (thirty) days after purchase of these assistance services

iii. Changes to these Terms and Conditions
